- Panoramic views of London while dining in style and comfort
- One of the best ways to see the UK capital at night
- Four-course meal from an excellent à la carte menu
- Complimentary cocktail to welcome you aboard
- After-dinner dancing to live music from a first-class band

Your Romantic London Dinner Cruise departs from Embankment Pier, Victoria Embankment WC2N 6NU. To reach the meeting point by public transport, take the overland train to Charing Cross Station or the underground to Embankment station. Boarding begins at 1930h (7:30pm) and the boat sails promptly at 2000h (8:00pm).

You will be welcomed aboard with a pre-dinner drink. Then you can sit back, relax and enjoy the spectacular views as your boat sets off on a 20 km return cruise on the River Thames.

This is also your chance to study the tempting à la carte menu and choose the dishes you would like for your sumptuous four-course dinner. The menu features modern British and European cuisine prepared using the finest ingredients.

A medley of musical delights is performed during dinner by the resident band, which includes some of London's top musicians.

Your cruise takes you past some of the most famous landmarks of London such as Houses of Parliament, London Eye, Tate Modern, Millennium Bridge, Shakespeare's Globe, St. Paul's Cathedral and Tower Bridge. Enjoy breathtaking views of these famous buildings tastefully illuminated. The highlight of your Romantic London Dinner Cruise is the after-dinner dancing to live music from the 60s right through to the hits of today.

Your cruise ends back at the starting point at Embankment Pier.
